Railway Officials At Mirror

A. E. Warren, general manager of western lines of the Canadian National railways, was in Mirror on Friday of last week. Accompanied by a number of railway officials, Mr. Warren was making a tour of inspection over this branch of the road, and also the Brazeau line, which he was over on Thursday. He reached Mirror on Friday and left for Edmonton on Saturday, after making a very thorough inspection of the local roundhouse, shops and yards.

New Ballasting

The roadbed on the Canadian National railways between Mirror and Bashaw is receiving attention this week and when finished it should be a fine piece of track.

A Jordan spreader was in use this week. This machine, which works by compressed air, cuts the shoulder off the grade and spreads it to the side, and the ballast is then refilled with gravel. An extra gang will hit the rails and ties, level it and put it in good shape. In some places the grade is narrow and at these points it will be widened to make the whole uniform.

According to an official statement of the Alberta Wheat Pool, which operated for the first time the past season, those farmers who marketed through the pool will receive an average price on No. 1 Northern wheat basis Fort William, of $1.02, whereas the average price for other farmers has been 99¢ on the same basis. A difference in favor of the wheat pool farmers of 2¢ cents a bushel. From this must be deducted the total expenses of handling, which amount to less than one-half cent a bushel. The pool handled a total of 35,000,000 bushels.

MUCH NEEDED MOISTURE FALLS

The Mirror district received its first rain of any account for this year on Tuesday evening and the rain which fell for an hour and a half, will mean the salvation of a part of the crop at any rate. There was hail in some localities west of Mirror, but from reports received there appears to have been little damage done. All surrounding districts were favored with the rain.

The following crop report was issued on Saturday, July 12th: The stage has now been reached in the growing season of Alberta crops which it is possible to make a more or less definite statement with respect to present conditions and their bearing on the prospects for harvest.

In view of the conditions now prevailing as reported to the department of agriculture from all parts of the province, and in view of the recent rainfall conditions under which the grain crop was seeded this spring, the statement now to be made must be somewhat disappointing. Over practically the whole of the province, the weather during the past fortnight has been very warm, with hot, dry winds in most localities, relieved to some extent by rains in certain districts, but for the most part without precipitation. This has brought conditions to a stage where grain is heading out at from ten to fifteen inches, in certain areas at beginning of the lack of moisture.

Pastureage is also in many parts has suffered during the past week. General rains come within the next week, the prospects generally speaking would be greatly improved, particularly with respect to later sown grain. Such a rain would alter the situation sufficiently to ensure prospects of a fairly good crop.

The south-west portion of the province, from Calgary south to the international border and west of a line passing through Lettbridge, enjoys the most satisfactory conditions of any section of the province. In this district rains have been frequent, and the growing grain is in a very healthy state and the prospects are for a very good crop.

With respect to the remainder of the province, conditions are very dry, the grain showing a healthy growth where rains happen to have been frequent, but in the south-eastern part of the province has suffered rather severely during the past two weeks from lack of moisture, and this is also true of some portions of the east central district as far north as the main line of the Canadian National railway, and of some portions of the west central district as far north as Lacombe, where very dry conditions at present prevail. In all this territory, the grain is heading out without growth. Rains within the next week would considerably enhance the prospects of the crops in this territory, but the prospects at present are for less than a normal crop.

In the district surrounding Edmonton, and to the east of the city some 100 miles, and north and northwest for about half that distance, the grain is in very fair condition, and with further rains, the prospects may be said to be very satisfactory. The Peace River and Grande Prairie districts are suffering from lack of moisture, and rainfall is urgently needed to ensure a crop.

Good rains fell in the Edmonton territory a week ago, and in the Calgary territory about the same time, but beyond this, reports indicate that precipitation during the past fortnight has been limited to small local showers.

Crops on the irrigated districts of the south are in splendid shape, and the prospects are for a good harvest from these areas.

Alfalfa has been a successful crop.

A Warning

There is an epidemic at the present time, of burglaries all over the province. Merchants and others who habitually carry large sums of money in their safes should take all possible precautions against burglary. The actions of strangers hanging around the village should be watched and if necessary reported to the proper authorities. These burglaries have taken place recently at no very great distance from Mirror.

Mirror Canadian National took a hard-fought game from Stettler on their own grounds on Wednesday evening of last week. Stettler was leading at the end of the eighth inning, 5 to 4, and with two men down in their half of the ninth Mirror staged a rally and shaved three runs over. John Tulloch, a junior, distinguished himself by hitting 750.

Safeguard Your Hay

To the Editor Mirror Journal: Sir,—May I call the attention of farmers generally and of hay owners more particularly to the fact that as a result of prairie fires of unknown origin this spring, the seed on the following quarters is slight and in my opinion become a public danger: N.W. 7, S.W. 7, S.E. 7, and N.W. 4, all 41-22 W. 4th. Having lost almost all my hay, and all my green feed from the myself, etc, I merely suggest, as a help to others, that they safeguard their present stacks and crops of hay in whatever manner seems best to them, and that a day or two spent with plow or disc now, is a cheap insurance premium, as compared to time, money, and life-threatening involved in, if things came to the worst, squeezing through the courts, blood (very thin) and water (out) of a bunch of stones.

In more particular reference to the above mentioned fire, I have noticed a municipality, because from the fact that they spent money in a recent local fire case, after the milk was spilled, and it is a reasonable premise that they will much more readily and wholeheartedly wish to protect, in an endeavor to prevent, so to speak, the jug tipping over in this instance, though what they could do I cannot suggest, because it is, I think, generally agreed that the fire cannot be extinguished without the help of rain in abundance. So be safe, rather than sorry; hay is a hard-earned saving, and a few farrows around a stack or the field itself may be worth many days' good wages. Thanking you, Mr. Editor,

Yours for cooler hay,
F. G. Pym.

United States and the League of Nations

A proposal for a national referendum on the question of the United States entering the League of Nations has come from the platform committee of the Democratic National Convention, and should the Democrats carry the elections of members to the Senate and House of Representatives, the proposal for such a referendum will undoubtedly be vigorously urged.

The League of Nations is only four years old, but it has already included in its membership fifty-five nations representing more than three-quarters of the area and population of the world. Only eight countries are still outside the League, namely, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Afghanistan, Mexico, Russia, Turkey, Germany and the United States. With the signing of the Treaty of Lausanne, Turkey announced her intention of applying for membership, and Germany will not doubt be admitted as soon as the present abnormal economic and political situation is settled. Russia is antagonistic and at present ineligible due to her peculiar political constitution.

Playing the game of party politics in the United States kept that country out of the League, notwithstanding the great part taken by the late ex-President Wilson and his colleagues in drafting the League Covenant. There has, however, always been a strong sentiment in the United States in support of the League of Nations and favorable to membership and active participation in its work by the United States. That sentiment has been kept alive and fostered by the League of Nations Society in the United States, and by powerful public men, newspapers and organizations.

The large measure of success achieved by the League during the past four years has also had its effect in convincing thousands of people who, in the United States, as elsewhere, were somewhat skeptical that an international organization could be created, maintained and be made effective based on a mutual understanding of international relations, goodwill and desire to achieve international peace and security. To many the League seemed visionary, too Utopian, and altogether impracticable.

However, in a phase of time actually shorter than the Great War, the League of Nations has been successful in settling three disputes which otherwise would almost certainly have resulted in wars; caused the cessation of hostilities between Poland and Lithuania; stopped a war actually in progress between Yugoslavia and Albania; and, through the instrumentality of the Permanent Court of International Justice established by the League, settled a serious dispute between Great Britain and France.

The League saved Austria from bankruptcy and has established that country firmly on the way to prosperity, thus preventing further trouble in Europe which inevitably would have followed the break-up of that country. It is now engaged in similar work for Hungary.

Through its International Labor Bureau, which consists of representatives of Governments, employers and employees, the League is improving industrial conditions by raising the standards of labor uniformly throughout the world, thus removing the old excuse that labor conditions cannot be improved in one country because of the lower standard prevailing in other countries in competition with it.

Action taken by the League stopped the extension and ravages of the plague of typhus which threatened to overrun all Europe. The League secured the liberation of half a million prisoners of war held in Russia long after hostilities had ceased. It is waging an organized world-wide campaign against the opium and drug traffic, as well as for the suppression of the traffic in women and children. It is engaged in scientific research and campaigns for the prevention of disease, and wherever a danger spot of plague arises there the League concentrates its good health forces.

The League of Nations is the greatest existing agency doing practical work for the reconstruction of the shattered nations of Europe, upon the rehabilitation of which depends the security and prosperity of the world. It is the one existing human agency carrying in itself the hope of all peoples for the maintenance of peace and the ultimate disarmament of the nations. It is carrying on the work at a yearly cost not more than the upkeep of one first-class modern battleship.

The Great War in Canada over one and one-quarter billions of dollars not to mention the still more tragic loss in human life, in bodies crippled and shattered, in untold agonies of human suffering. The after-cost of the war to Canada this year will be $34,739,000, or over one million dollars a week. On the other hand, Canada's contribution to the upkeep of the League of Nations, the only existing human agency capable of preventing war, will be only $198,658, or less than four thousand dollars a week. That is our national insurance premium against war.

These things are having their effect on the people of the United States, and if the League issue could only be separated from party politics in our sister Republic, there is little doubt what the verdict of the people there would be. Hence the plan a national referendum is to be welcomed. In the meantime, as the only North American member of the League, it is Canada's duty and privilege to interpret the League to our neighbors to the south, and in their intercourse with United States citizens, whether personal or in their business relationships, Canadians should strive to promote sentiment favorable to the League of Nations, and show very clearly that they are looking forward hopefully to the day when the United States will occupy its rightful place in the brotherhood of nations, and in that longed-for day, the Permanent of Man represented by the Council and Assembly of the League of Nations.

Weekly Mail To Alaska

Railroad Makes This Possible For First Time Since 1898

Residents of the Yukon River are receiving a weekly mail service for the first time since 1893, during the great gold rush of the Yukon. The Alaska Railroad has made this possible.

A train leaves Seward, on the Gulf of Alaska of the Pacific Ocean, and winds its way to Nome, 400 miles north of the interior. At Nome the mail is transferred to government messengers, who carry it to White Horse, 400 miles from the river's mouth.

From Holy Cross the Northern Commercial Company operates a fleet of launches to Nome and St. Michael, on the Bering Sea coast, and Inokno and Iditarod on the Inokno and Iditarod rivers in the interior.

Vancouver Wants

Harding Memorial

Late President Won Hearts of People

During His Visit

The decision of the Kiwanis to erect a memorial in Stanley Park to the late President Harding is one which the people of Vancouver will applaud.

President Harding was the only American chief executive to visit Canada during his term of office, and the spot where he departed his mortal coil of friendship and goodwill to the Canadian people has, therefore, an historic interest.

It was there that President Harding, who had been able to win them, and shared enthusiasm to a pitch which will long be remembered. Warren G. Harding will rank among the greatest of American presidents.

There was none whose humanity and love of his fellow men were greater.

Wabash Tribe

The girls from Mirror and Ripley returned from the C.G. I.T. camp at Point Thirteen on Monday last, after spending one glorious week at that place. There were 68 girls and leaders and the girls were from Bawlf, Camrose, Forestburg, Bashaw, Mirror, Ripley, Alix, Ardley and Elmore. These were divided into groups and each group formed itself into a tribe adopting an Indian name and were initiated in the full splendor of Indian customs.

Each tribe chose their "Little Chief", who, when pledging their honor and allegiance handed to their "Little Chief" a twig which he bound and presented to the "Big Chief". This was burnt in the big camp fire and each "Little Chief" kindled their camp fire from the great fire.

The Mirror group was known as the "Wabash Tribe". The fourfold life was brought out in all parts and the girls have returned home after making many good friends and with a lasting memory of an extremely happy and profitable week spent in the C.G.I.T. camp on Buffalo lake.

Rev. and Mrs. Barry, of Camrose, and Mrs. Barry, of Camrose, were camp managers; Mrs. J. F. Slight, of Camrose, was the director-in-chief; Miss Dorothy Kinney, of Edmonton, was director of athletics. Each group was championed by its leader, the Mirror, Ripley and Ardley group being in charge of Mrs. H. S. Oldring.
